

The Draw Squad
"Yes to Drawing and No to T.V."
Contract

I, _____, do hereby solemnly promise to just say "Yes to Drawing and No to T.V." for a period of two weeks from the date of ____/____/____

I fully understand that I am a brilliant genius and that I am brave enough to attempt this two-week drawing challenge.

During the next two weeks I will have tons of free time because I won't be glued to the television. I promise to devote this free non-T.V. time to drawing, drawing, and more drawing. Instead of watching violent and negative stuff on T.V., I will create super cool, creative, positive "pencil power" adventures in the world of my imagination.
